

Rejuvenation moves downtown

SCOTTSDALE — Rejuvenation has come to downtown Scottsdale.

The Thai massage center bridges the practices of Thai massage and yoga.

Thai massage features an interactive partnership between the giver and receiver.

Muscle stretches and gentle pressure along prescribed “energy lines” produce an effect massage therapists describe as “invigorating and calming.”

Instruction in the Thai massage technique is also given at the studio.

An on-site boutique sells yoga fashions, accessories and organic snacks.

Rejuvenation is at 7050 E. Fifth Ave.
